The Times' Daily Short Story.

A Promise Redeemed

(Original)

During the civil war I had been confined as a prisoner in Libby prison, and ten years after being discharged from the United States service I was and deeply seized with a desire to go south and have a look at it. As I was starting on my uncle of mine insisted on giving me a letter to an old friend of his, named Porcher, a Richmond merchant.

As soon as I arrived in the former Confederate capital I went down to the river bank and, standing before the old tobacco warehouse that had been my prison, looked up at it with very singular feelings. There on the street level was the door out of which I had passed in broad daylight at the summit risk of my life and began a journey of intolerable suffering down the James river. As I stood in 1874 looking on the scene of my adventure of 1864 I scarcely realized that I was a free man, permitted to come and go as I liked. Not a uniform was to be seen, business had taken the place of war.

This is how I came to make an attempt at escape. One of the prisoners had secured a loaded revolver, how I knew except that it was purchased from one of the guards when he was asleep or drunk or who had left it carelessly where it could be pounced upon. It was a dangerous article for a prisoner to have, and it was passed from one to another till it came to me. I was desperate, and, hiding it under my shirt, buttoned my ragged coat around it, hoping that I might find a chance to use it in some desperate move for freedom.

I was confined on the ground floor. At times the door would be left open, a guard pacing back and forth on the pavement before it. At times I would make bold to go to the door and look out, usually to be ordered back. There were one of the sentries whom I especially noticed. He was what I then called an old man of about forty-five and was doubtless a citizen relieving regular troops at guarding prisoners. One day at noon I went to the door and stood looking out. Everybody was at dinner, and I could see no soldier except the old sentry, who I noticed was thinking about something besides his guard duty. It was a crazy thing to do, but my life as a prisoner was a burden to me. I watched the sentry till he turned to walk with his back to me, then like a flash slipped out the door and ran like a deer to the corner where a street sloped down to the river. As I turned a hall came whizzing past me, and I knew I had been discovered. The sentry chased me, and although I was much younger than he, I was weakened by confinement. He caught up with me just as I was getting behind a pile of lumber. I turned and shot him with my revolver. Daring on, I saw a cellar window open and crawled in. Searchers passed my hiding place a dozen times without thinking to enter, and when it was dark I crawled out, dodged along down the river bank, found a boat and floated on the bosom of the historic James. How I reached Old Point Comfort and our ships would make a story of itself.

After inspecting Libby I presented my letter of introduction to Mr. Porcher. Now, there would be nothing in this story except the hairbreadth escape, of which there were thousands in that war, had not my host had a pretty daughter ten years my junior, between whom and me there sprang a case of love at first sight. I stayed in Richmond a long while, pretending to have business there, all the while attempting to smooth away Mr. Porcher's prejudice against me having been a Union soldier. When at last I thought I had him in a more mollified condition I ventured to ask him for his daughter's hand. He heard me through with lowering brow, then said:

"I will give my consent on one condition. There is a man probably living whom I wish to kill—a miserable dirty little Yankee who was a prisoner in Libby in 1864. I was a member of the home guard and a sentinel at the prison when one day the impudent boy walked out of the door and ran away. I followed him. He not only gave me a wound in the shoulder from which I have suffered ever since, but I was dropped from the guard in derision." He was going on, getting more and more excited as he proceeded, when his daughter came in anxiously and stopped him. He ended by making it a condition of his consent to our union that I would promise to scour the north for that "dirty little scoundrel" and give him a chance to shoot him.

I listened to this with astonishment. There had been something familiar about Mr. Porcher's face and figure, and I could not get over the idea that I had seen him somewhere. As for me, I had grown whiter and weighed fifty pounds more than when I was a prisoner. I was too much disconcerted to reply at once, but finally pulling myself together said:

"Mr. Porcher, I promise you solemnly that within six months after my marriage with your daughter I will produce the 'dirty little Yankee' you refer to. I have heard of this case and am sure I can oblige you."

The old man grasped my hand warmly and declared I was just the son-in-law he wanted.

Exactly six months after making the promise I redeemed it by taking myself to my father-in-law, with whom I had become a great favorite, and giving him permission to shoot me. He was too much astonished to avail himself of the privilege.

Hope, city clerk, has completed a census of the children of school age in this city, and the following facts appear: Number of children in city between five and eight years, 414; number between eight and thirteen years, 114; number between thirteen and eighteen years, 208; a total of 1,359. There are 674 boys and 669 girls. At the last census there were 1,359 children of legal school age, with 681 boys and 678 girls. Only a fraction over half the number of children attend the public schools.

DELEGATES AGREE.

Police Question Regarded as Settled at Algiers.

Washington, March 29.—A dispatch from the State Department from Algiers says that the French and Algerian delegates at the conference at Algiers have agreed on the police question as a preliminary arrangement that they have not received the ratification of their action from their home Governments. This is expected to come soon, and the police matter will be closed today. It is said here that there is no possibility of a hitch in the proceedings.

TAPT WOULD HAMPER CUPID.

Would Prohibit Marriage of Officers Below Captain's Rank.

Washington, March 29.—Secretary Taft, before the Senate military affairs committee, yesterday strongly advocated a change in the army appropriation bill prohibiting the marriage of officers below the rank of captain, and referred to the numerous defalcations and financial difficulties of young officers leading to trial by court martial and disgrace.

"Would not the application of your plan tend to ease ourselves," asked Senator Blackburn.

Secretary Taft admitted that it might, and added that it was with great reluctance that he was forced to advocate the change in question. He said he could not sanction Senator Smith's plan of increased pay for officers of the lower grades.

CAN'T AVOID A STRIKE

Soft Coal Miners and Operators Meet in Final Effort

PLAN FOR ARBITRATION

Some Talk of a Proposition Being Made, But There Is Little Likelihood of It Being Accepted.

Indianapolis, March 29.—There is a general feeling here that a soft coal strike cannot now be avoided. The joint conference of the bituminous operators and miners of the central competitive district met in what was generally understood to be a final effort to reach an agreement on the wage scale in Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and western Pennsylvania.

An Ohio delegate spoke briefly in reply to a statement made Tuesday by H. F. Chapman of Ohio regarding local conditions in Jackson county, Ohio. A. J. Moorehead of the Illinois operators spoke first for the operators. He said the operators would be pleased to pay the miners an increase in wages, but it was a business impossibility at this time.

"No operator will go farther than I will to meet our employees," continued Mr. Moorehead. "It may be true that in some part of the country, western Pennsylvania, for instance, the miners are able to pay an advance, but I know that in Illinois it is impossible."

He said miners in the thick vein in Illinois could earn from $8 to $10 per day. This statement was received by the miners with laughter, which brought a rebuke from the chair.

A prominent among the miners declared during the day that the only hope for peace now lies in a surrender by the operators. The report is around that the convention will soon adjourn, and will report no agreement possible.

The next step will be, it is expected, for the miners to call a convention and declare a strike.

Irvin, Pa., March 29.—According to the statement of the officials of the Penn Gas Coal company, the strike inaugurated at their Penn station works three weeks ago because of the discharge of a number of miners said to be union men has failed, and all the coal trains are now being produced.

The operators think that if a strike is called in the Irvin field the miners will continue to work, which means an output of nearly 2,000,000 tons of coal a month.

RAID UPON FUEL.
Chicago Expects Coal Famine as Roads Constitute It.

Chicago, March 29.—The Record-Herald says: The supply of commercial coal for Chicago has practically been cut off. For two weeks the coal-carrying railroads have been taking 25 per cent of the output of many mines and the entire production of others.

Actual consumption of coal by the roads within three days is predicted by coal men.

During the remainder of this week not a pound of coal from Ohio, West Virginia or Pennsylvania will reach Chicago, according to dealers, who asserted Tuesday that it would all be taken by roads running to the mines.

The price of coal is being advanced and the limit has not been reached. Jobbers have been selling all the soft coal obtainable on cars at $2.50 a ton. Two months ago, in the middle of the winter, it went for $2 a ton.

Coal Jumps in Boston.
Boston, March 29.—Boston retail coal dealers yesterday increased the price of soft coal fifty cents on the ton. The increased retail price is $4.75 a ton. The wholesale price was increased from $2.25 to $2.50 yesterday.

One dealer said: "There is a decided scarcity of soft coal in this city today. We are very short and our coal is going fast. People seem to be afraid of the threatened strike."

Another prominent dealer, who is considered an authority on the coal situation, said:

FACTS IN NATURE.
Not Only Do We Get Inspiration From Nature, But Health as Well.

For people who are run-down and nervous, who suffer from indigestion, or torpid liver, coated tongue with bitter taste in the morning and poor appetite, it becomes necessary to turn to some tonic or strengthener which will assist Nature and help them to get on their feet and put the body into its proper condition. It is becoming more and more apparent that Nature's most valuable health-giving agents are to be found in forest plants and roots.

Nearly forty years ago, Dr. R. V. Pierce, now consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N. Y., discovered that by scientifically extracting and combining certain medicinal principles from native roots, taken from our American forests, he could produce a medicine which was marvelously efficient in curing cases of blood disorder and liver and stomach trouble as well as many other chronic or lingering ailments. This concentrated extract of Nature's vitality he named "Golden Medical Discovery." It purifies the blood by putting the stomach and liver into healthy condition, thereby helping the direction and assimilation of food which feeds the blood. Therefore it cures weak stomach, indigestion, torpid liver, or biliousness, and kindred troubles, with bitter or bad taste in the morning, frequent headaches, feeble weak easily tired, sickness or pain in the back, gives out easily and aches, belching of gas, constipation, or irregular bowels, free flashes of heat alternating with chilly sensations or kindred symptoms. They point to derangement of your stomach, liver and kidneys, which the "Golden Medical Discovery" will correct more speedily and permanently than any other known agent. Contains no alcohol or habit-forming drugs. All its ingredients prepared in plain English on wrapper.

The sole motive for substitution is to permit the dealer to make a little more profit. Beware of low cost. Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." Consultation exacts and aggravates the various diseases. It is a thoroughly cured by Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. One box (100) or three are satisfactory.

considered an authority on the coal subject, said:

"There is at present plenty of soft coal in the city, but no one knows how long it will last. We are overwhelmed with orders just at present, and our supply is going fast. There is undoubtedly a serious scarcity outside of Boston in the wholesale field. Probably the price will continue to jump rapidly from now on. There will undoubtedly be a coal strike, and that before long."

CZAREWITCH REPORTED UNFIT TO RULE RUSSIA

New Succession Law Being Prepared, It Is Said, as the Direct Heir Is "Dead and Dumb."

New York, March 29.—A copyright cable from Vienna to the World says: A private telegram from St. Petersburg says that a new succession law is being prepared, which is believed to be connected with persistently circulated reports concerning the Czar's weak health.

According to reports emanating from quarters connected with the court, the Czar is dead and dumb, while other reports describe him as "intermittently" (small brain).

TRIO TO RESIGN.

Witte, Damore and Shipoff to Leave Czar's Cabinet.

St. Petersburg, March 29.—Rumors of impending cabinet changes continue to circulate. The Russ declares that beyond doubt the state of Premier Witte's health will force him to retire and also predicts the resignation of Interior Minister Damore and Finance Minister Shipoff.

CURE FOR RHEUMATISM DISCOVERED BY ITALIAN

Ex Army Officer Lectures Before London Society on His New "Arthralgonon."

New York, March 29.—A special cable from London to the Sun says:

Dr. Ballabone, an ex-staff captain of the Italian army medical corps, lectured Tuesday night before the London Therapeutic society on a new remedy for neuralgia, rheumatism and all gouty affections. He began his experiments in 1892. He believes he has discovered a cure, consisting of an injection containing arsenic and benzoin elements. Five or six injections in the muscles will subdue a recurrence of the disease. The remedy does not cause irritation or other harm. Dr. Ballabone calls his discovery arthralgonon. It operates by combining with the uric acid in the blood, rendering it soluble, and thereby enabling it to be more easily eliminated. It also destroys the toxins in the blood.

STEAMER ITALIA FLOATED.

Italian Vessel Reaches Palermo in a Badly Leaking Condition.

Palermo, Sicily, March 29.—The Italian steamer Italia, which recently ran aground, arrived here yesterday. She is leaking badly and must discharge her cargo and go into dock for repairs. Her passengers are being landed.

The identity of the Italia is in doubt. There are two steamers of that name, one trading between Italian ports and New York, and the agents in this city of both lines have not yet received any news.

ANTI-DYNASTIC MOVE.

Chinese Collecting Arms and Munitions in Mongolia.

Victoria, B. C., March 29.—Advices received from China by the Empress of Japan say revolutionists are planning an anti-dynastic coup at Peking. A despatch to the Tokio Hochi says revolutionaries are congregating in various parts of the empire, and have been converted to Mongolia.

WOMAN A TAX COLLECTOR.

Miss Johnson First to Hold Such a Position in New Hampshire.

Lancaster, N. H., March 29.—For the first time in the history of this state, a woman has been elected as tax collector for a city. The innovation was made Tuesday, when the city council, in choosing the city officers for the coming year, named Miss Martha E. Johnson as collector. Miss Johnson has been employed in the office of the city clerk and the tax collector for several years.

MANY PEASANTS ELECTED TO PROVINCIAL CONGRESS

Kostroma, European Russia, Is the First Province to Complete Its Elections—Significant Proportions.

St. Petersburg, March 28.—The province of Kostroma, European Russia, is the first to have completed its elections to the provincial congress. Forty-six peasants, 19 noblemen, six merchants, six professional men and three priests were returned. The representation of peasants is significant, considering that they were entitled to elect only 20 delegates, while the land owners had 35, the cities 25 and the workmen seven delegates. The results show that the "small landowners," who in reality are only peasants of the more prosperous class, holding their property in severalty, stood together against the big land lords and these exclusively peasants. The peasant electors are not classified and have but one plank in their platform, namely the distribution of land. The others are divided, 24 per cent being conservatives and 18 per cent constitutional democrats.

EIGHT DEPUTIES.

Sturgis Liquor Officers Have to Draw Their Revolvers.

Waterville, Me., March 29.—The feeling against the enforcement of the Sturgis bill for the stricter interpretation of the prohibition law, a feeling which has been growing gradually throughout the state, and has manifested itself in various sorts of outbreaks almost nightly, reached a climax here Tuesday night, when a mob of 300 men, women and children pursued Liquor Deputies Towne and Stackpole through the principal streets, compelling them to draw their revolvers in self defense.

The deputies had just reached a kitchen in the stables of the city. Deputy Towne arrested Frank Car, because he drew a half pint of whiskey on his person. Another man in the barroom made a dash for liberty, and Stackpole pursued. The crowd opened to let the men through and then turned on the deputy. One he was knocked down, but he to his feet and drew his revolver. The crowd pulled the deputies all the way to the police station with sticks, snowballs and other missiles.

DRIVEN OUT OF HOMES.

Many Persons Forced to Flee on Account of Floods.

Waterloo, Iowa, March 29.—The water in the Cedar river rose over 11 feet Tuesday night and, only yesterday it broke the west levee and flooded the business district of Waterloo. Hundreds of families were made homeless. Rock Island tracks were washed out for half a mile and all railroads are tied up. Cedar Falls reports a similar disaster and 250 families there were rendered homeless. Bridges and dams were also wiped out.

At 2 o'clock the waters came to a standstill and danger for the present is believed to be over.
